

Conclusions

---

A substantial amount of genetic variation was discovered within and surrounding the collagenous lectin genes of horses and cattle:

- 4559 SNVs in horses were identified, 74 % of which were not present in dbSNP.
- 5439 SNVs in cattle were identified, however, the better characterization of the genome in this species meant only 122 were novel.

C